Beyond the Supernatural™

Character History

* Jenna was born into a family of Dentistry it seems, both her parents were in the field. While her sisters had no interest in it, Dentistry came naturally to Jenna and followed the family's field. To evenout her good attributes she has proven to be a poorly practicing Catholic, much to her parents dismay. In College she began to acquire lots of tattoo's and was the lead singer in a garage band called "Straddling the Dragon". Her college life was a big party to her and she lived it up. Her saving grace in school was her headsmarts and an aptitude for her chosen profession.
 *Jenna seems to be enjoying the nightlife too much to really start settling down yet. But when the time comes she should prove to be a very stable and well rounded woman.
 * Recently learned of the Supernatural and her curiosity has gotten the better of her. She cant help but want to investigate and be part of a hunting party of the Supernatural.

Notes

* When intoxicated, Jenna becomes impulsive and is easily prone to taking foolish risks & dares.
 * Jenna can be considered a liberated woman, but a large part of her freedom is to hide her fear of loneliness. This has led to a lot of toxic relationships and broken hearts for her as she tends to move extremely fast into any relationship she starts and most of them end poorly.
 * Jenna is new to the world of the supernatural and knows very little about it. Most of her ideas and concepts come from movies, TV and books; which in most cases are incorrect facts.
