-Madison grew up a very paternal, protective and caring person, especially towards her younger sister Mercedes. Her faith in god and that Mercedes was special somehow would be what gave her much the needed strength and bravery in the years to come.

-When Dr. Beer explained to her that Sadie was a psychic savant, Madison had a hard time accepting it. The supernatural, her sister being psychic, the world of the paranormal; it was a lot to soak in and Madison took almost a year to take a leap of faith by bringing Mercedes to a paranormal investigation at the request of Dr. Smythe. Madison quickly learned however that Mercedes became something more when involved in paranormal outings, and her autism was much more subdued during such investigations.

-Madison has since started taking Sadie to paranormal investigations regularly, and as her skills as an psychic investigator becomes more in demand (to where she's making a career out of it), Madison will become both her business partner and her caretaker during investigations.
